Messrs J. H. & H. Chapman
Philadelphia Pa.

Gentlemen:—

Inclosed you will find a description of an old piece of money I have (papers) and which I thought you might possibly be interested in. I think it formally belonged to my father's Grandfather Gen.

Thomas Forman of the Revolutionary army.

As a curiosity it ought to be worth something and I am desirous of selling it at a good price.

I also have a ten cent
paper piece known as

"greenback" money that no doubt is very rare.
Inclosed also is a list of some old coins I have. Will you make me an offer for any of these pieces?
I shall write to several numismatists and curiosity collectors and if I receive a suitable offer I will sell. An early reply will be very much appreciated.

Yours truly,
(Mrs.) L. A. Coltharp.
